

Platform-General-Terms & Conditions

These Platform General Terms & Conditions shall apply to and supplement any End User License Agreement entered into between a Subscriber and Correggio Consulting sprl/bvba (the “Parties”) for access to the ComplianceNet (“CNet”) regulatory compliance platform available at www.energy-compliance.net Capitalised terms used but not otherwise defined shall have the meaning ascribed to them in clause 17.

1. General

1.1. Parties

A party may enter into an End User License Agreement (“EULA”) which shall be governed by these Platform General Terms & Conditions. The EULA and these GTC shall constitute the complete contractual arrangement between the Parties.

1.2. Precedence

In the event of a conflict, the terms contained in the EULA shall prevail over the terms contained herein.

2. Term

The Agreement commences on the Start Date once payment of the Service Charge has been received by Correggio and will remain in force during the term of any subscribed Service. Unless otherwise stated in an EULA, the term of the provision of each Service is one calendar year from the Start Date (1 January) for that Service and will automatically renew for additional one year periods, unless one party gives the other not less than thirty (30) days prior notice to expire at the end of the then-current term for that Service (the “Term”).

Subscriber may subscribe to additional services during the Term. These additional services are subject to the same Term and will be offered to Subscriber for a reduced length of Term in line with the earlier point in time of Subscription and a pro-rata reduces Service Fee. At the expiry of the Term for the services which were first subscribed, Subscriber will be asked to bring the Term for all services in line.

3. Service Charges

3.1. Payment of Service Charges

Subscriber will pay the Service Charges within thirty (30) days of the date of the invoice and without set-off, counterclaim or deduction. The Service Charge is the product of the services subscribed to by Subscriber and the number of commodities multiplied by the number of countries. The Services are paid in advance of the accession to the website. The Service Charges are further explained in a Fee Schedule which forms integral part of the contractual arrangements between Subscriber and Correggio.

3.2. Paymet Options

Subscriber can choose between annual payment of the Charges or biannual payment. For the initial Subscription, Charges will be pro rata for the remaining months of the current calendar year. As of the subsequent calendar year, the annual or bi-annual payment option will take effect.

Recurring Service Charges accrue pro rata from the Start Date until the end of the month in which a termination of the Service takes effect. Subscriber must notify Correggio of any disputes within fifteen (15) days of the date of invoice. Correggio may apply an interest charge of 1% per month or the highest lawful interest rate (whichever is lower) to all amounts not paid to Correggio when due. Correggio may suspend access to the Services immediately upon late payment of any of the Service Charges.

3.3. Payment of Taxes

The Service Charges are exclusive of taxes, and Subscriber will also pay applicable taxes and duties (including withholding taxes, value added tax (VAT) or other taxes but excluding income taxes imposed on Correggio). Subscriber will provide to Correggio written evidence of any withholding tax paid by Subscriber or any tax exemption on which Subscriber wishes to rely. If Subscriber is obliged to withhold or deduct any portion of the Service Charges, then Correggio shall be entitled to receive from Subscriber such amounts as will ensure that the net receipt, after tax and duties, to Correggio in respect of the Service Charges is the same as it would have been were the payment not subject to the tax or duties.

3.4. Changes to Service Charges

Correggio may increase or adjust the basis for calculating the Service Charges for the next following renewal term for each Service by providing Subscriber not less than forty-five (45) days written notice to expire at the end of the then current term for that Service. The Service Charges shall be payable as increased or adjusted during the next following renewal term for that the Service.

4. Performance and Compliance

4.1. Obligations of the Parties.

Correggio will provide the Services to Subscriber using reasonable skill and care. Correggio will provide, and Subscriber will use, the Services in accordance with (a) the Agreement; and (b) applicable laws and regulations. If the under the EULA it is permitted to provide an affiliate with access to any part of the Services, Subscriber shall ensure that such affiliate complies with all provisions of the Agreement applicable to Subscriber as if they were its own.

4.2. Export Control and Sanctions.

Subscriber shall not obtain, retain, use, or provide access to the Services to an affiliate or any third party in a manner that may breach any applicable export control or economic sanctions laws and regulations for any jurisdiction, including the United States of America and the European Union and its Member States. Subscriber warrants that neither it nor any affiliate to which Subscriber provides access to the Services is or is affiliated with a specially designated or sanctioned entity under any of those laws and that, in any transaction relating to Correggio, it will not involve sanctioned parties, including without limitation through the use of bank accounts at banks that are sanctioned parties.

5. Usage Permissions and Restrictions

Correggio permits Subscriber to use the Services within the scope of use set out in the EULA.

5.1. Usage Restrictions

- (a) Subscriber will not: (i) copy or modify any part of or create any derivative works from, the Services; or (ii) use or provide the Services in a white-labelled basis, or otherwise, for the benefit of any third party (other than third parties to the extent they are expressly permitted under the Agreement to receive access to the Services).

To assist in resolving technical problems with the Services, Correggio may provide telephone and/or online access to its support team, or may provide self-help tools.

Correggio will use reasonable efforts to notify Subscriber of significant changes to Services. Any Changes of the GTC or the EULA will take effect as of the new Term. ### 10.1. External Triggers Correggio may, with notice ("Correggio's Notice"), terminate a Service in whole or in part, or modify it or the terms on which it is provided, if all or part of that Service: (a) depends on an agreement between Correggio or a Correggio affiliate and a third party, and that third party agreement or the third party's materials or other input is modified or terminated; (b) becomes illegal or contrary to any law, regulation, guideline or request of any regulatory authority; or (c) becomes subject to a claim or potential claim that it infringes or violates the rights of any third party. Correggio will endeavour to provide Subscriber with reasonable prior notice of any such termination or modification, but may not be able to do so if the triggering event is under the control of a third party. The effective date of the termination or modification as indicated on Correggio's Notice is the "Change Date". If a partial termination or modification in accordance with this clause 10.2 fundamentally and detrimentally changes the nature of or the rights granted in the Service, Subscriber may terminate the affected Service by providing Correggio with notice no later than thirty (30) days after the date of Correggio's Notice. Such Service will then be terminated effective on the Change Date.

10.2. Obsolescence

Correggio may obsolete a Service or a prior version of a Service on at least ninety (90) days prior notice. Correggio will have no obligation to provide or support obsolete Services or versions of Services at the end of such notice periods. In the case of obsolescence, the term of the affected Service will continue unless the new version is subject to additional Service Charges, in which case Subscriber may terminate the Service by providing Correggio with thirty (30) days' notice after the date of Correggio's notice. In the case of Service obsolescence, the Service will terminate.

10.3. Suspension

Any such suspension may continue until Correggio is satisfied that the condition is remedied. Subscriber is still required to pay the Service Charges during any period of suspension permitted by (a) or (b) above.

10.4. Termination for Breach

Either party may terminate the Agreement, upon notice, if the other party materially breaches the Agreement and the breach (a) remains unremedied thirty (30) days after the date the breaching party receives a notice from the other party describing the breach and requiring it to be cured, or (b) is incapable of being cured. However, if the material breach relates solely to one or more Services (but not all the Services), the non-breaching party may only terminate the relevant Service(s).

10.5. Termination for Insolvency

Either party may terminate the Agreement, immediately upon notice, if: (i) the other party enters into a composition with its creditors; (ii) a court order is made for the winding up of the other party; (iii) an effective resolution is passed for the winding up of the other party (other than for the purposes of amalgamation or reconstruction); (iv) the other party has a receiver, manager, administrative receiver or administrator appointed with respect to it, (v) the other party ceases to be able to pay its debts as they fall due; (vi) the other party takes or suffers any action similar to any of the above on account of debt in any jurisdiction.

10.6. Injunctive Relief

Nothing in this Agreement prevents Correggio or Subscriber from seeking an immediate injunction or similar remedy from a court of competent jurisdiction to prevent or restrain breaches of the Agreement.

10.7. Refunds

Where Correggio terminates a Service other than under clauses 10.4 (Termination for Breach) or 10.5 (Termination for Insolvency), or Subscriber terminates a Service where the Agreement permits it to, Subscriber will be not entitled to a pro rata refund of any recurring Service Charges that Subscriber has paid in advance for the terminated Service.

10.8. Delete or Return Information

Following termination, and at any time with respect to Confidential Information, (a) at Subscriber's request Correggio will promptly return, delete or destroy all Subscriber's Confidential Information, and (b) Subscriber will promptly return, delete or destroy all Correggio's Confidential Information. However, each party may retain copies to the extent required by, and used only to (i) comply with, law or regulation, and (ii) support the enforcement or defence of a party's rights under the Agreement.

10.9. Survival of Terms

Termination of all or any part of the Agreement will not affect a party's respective accrued rights and obligations.

The following clauses will survive termination: clause 3.1 (Payment of Service Charges), clause 3.3 (Payment of Taxes), clause 6 (Intellectual Property Rights and Feedback), clause 10.7 (Refunds), clause 10.8 (Delete or Return Information), clause 10.9 (Survival of Terms), and clauses 11 to 16 (Confidentiality; Data Privacy; Disclaimers; Limitation of Liability; Indemnity and Miscellaneous), along with any others that by their nature should survive.
