

[...]

Article 24

The license holder is bound to provide to the operator of transmission and system of prognoses of consumption of the final consumers in the format and on the due dates set-forth in the valid regulations.

[...]

Article 44

(1) The license holder is bound to inform the competent authority on:

- a) any fact which represents an infringement of the License Conditions within 8 days as of identifying it by the license holder;
- b) changing the legal representative of the license holder within 10 business days as of its registration with the National Trade Register Office;
- c) amendments of the status of the license holder determined by the merger, division, transformation, changing of the name, registered office, shareholding structure, share capital or heritage within 30 days as of their occurrence and registration with the National Trade Register Office; in case of division or merger, the condition of prior information provided in the License Conditions at section "Maintenance of Assets" shall be also complied with;
- d) changing the mailing address, which, according to the License Conditions, was notified as being a way of communicating with the competent authority, within 10 days prior to the enforcement of the change;
- e) modifying the contact data (telephone no., fax etc.) within 10 business days as of the occurrence;
- f) the case of revocation, incapacity or bankruptcy of the license holder within eight days as of the occurrence of the respective situation;
- g) cancelation by the issuer or expiry of validity of one of the documents (authorization, agreement, permit or approval) based on which the license was issued, which leads to the impossibility of carrying out of the activities allowed by the license or to the compliance with the License Conditions, within 8 days as of the occurrence of the respective situation;
- h) loss of the legal title with regard to holding immovable assets used by the license holder for the supply activity within 8 days as of the occurrence of the respective situation.

(2) Upon changing the secondary offices or opening/closing lucrative facilities, the license holder is bound to request the modification of the license.

(3) Upon notifying the name change, according to the provisions of the regulation, the license holder shall also provide to the competent authority the request for the modification of the license.

(4) The license holder which serves at least 5,000 final household consumers is bound to notify the competent authority with regard to the intent to disband centre for the relationship with the consumers who are part of the specialized structure in the relationship with the consumers provided at Article 29. The license holder may proceed with disbanding such centres for the relationship with consumers only with the prior consent of the competent authority.

Article 45

In order to ensure the compliance with the License Conditions and all applicable laws, the competent authority may request, examine and copy, under the legal conditions and in accordance with the law, any information, recordings and documents of the license holder which it considers related in any way to its business and activities in the energy sector. The requested information may contain classified information or commercially sensitive information. Upon the request of the competent authority, the license holder is bound to supply, within the indicated due periods, the requested information, recordings and documents.

[...]